This service is managed by Alliance Healthcare (Skills in Healthcare) in partnership with NHS Kent and Medway ICB, and the Circularity in Primary Pharmaceutical Packaging Accelerator (CiPPPA). Re-Hale was a collaborative working project between NHS Kent and Medway Integrated Care board and Chiesi Ltd which started November 2023 and ended October 2024. These communication materials have been adapted from this work. This is a Circularity in Primary Pharmaceutical Packaging Accelerator (CiPPPA) initiative, managed by TDi Sustainability. TDi is funded by its membership, including pharmaceutical companies. For more information on the members, visit www.cippa.org/membership.

- Alliance Healthcare will use the data collected to manage, coordinate and communicate with you in regard to the Re-Hale initiative.
- Alliance Healthcare will share your pharmacy name, address, telephone number, contact name and email address with NHS Kent and Medway ICB.
- NHS Kent & Medway ICB require these details in order to support the management of this service and may contact you directly in this capacity.

For more information on how Alliance Healthcare protects and processes your personal information, please visit our Privacy Policy here: <https://www.alliance-healthcare.co.uk/privacy-and-security>.

If you want to know more about how NHS Kent and Medway ICB handle personal data, please visit the NHS Kent and Medway ICB website: <https://www.kentandmedway.icb.nhs.uk/about-us/access-to-information/fair-processing-notice>.

Should you have any questions about NHS Kent and Medway ICB Privacy Notices or approach to data privacy, or CiPPPA's approach to data privacy, or wish to exercise your rights, you are invited to contact kmicb.rehale@nhs.net.

Your pharmacy name and address will be promoted on the Re-Hale website to inform people who use inhalers about the pharmacies involved in the Re-Hale initiative: www.rehale.co.uk.
